

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. What restored David's broken fellowship with God, after his sin with Bathsheba?
2. Does it seem likely that David would have confessed if Nathan had not faced him?
3. Does sin, even though it is confessed, always yield a sad harvest?
4. What should the Christians' attitude be toward sin?

SUMMARY:

All forms of sin are horrible in the sight of our Holy God. Let each of us read and reread Psalm 32 and 51, and bring the secrets of our own hearts to light, as did the conscience-smitten David. That is the main theme of the lesson today.

NOTES:

[SoF:4] We believe that Jesus Christ is God incarnate, born of a virgin, and lived a sinless life. He died on the cross for us. His shed blood is the atonement for our sins. [SoF:6] We believe that all are sinners and lost, awaiting the judgment of God, but God is not willing that any should be lost. [SoF:8] We believe that a saving faith results in regeneration by the Holy Spirit and the Word of God, without which there is no salvation.

QUARTERLY THEME: David the King

TOPIC: THE REBELLIOUS ABSALOM

INTRODUCTION:

The life of Absalom illustrates how sin leads to greater sin. Previous to his evil, Absalom had killed Amnon in revenge of Amnon's mistreatment of his sister, Tamar. In fear of his own life because of this murder, Absalom fled to Geshur. David having much love for Absalom, desired to have him brought back. However, Absalom became even more sinful in conspiring against his father's kingdom.

Although there are many attempts by individuals to reform themselves and by the society to reform criminals, all man's efforts to change the desperately wicked heart are futile. [\[SoF:6\]](#) Many become obviously worse. Only by the atonement of Christ can sin be blotted out and by submission to him can the heart be made clean. [\[SoF:4\]](#)

SINNERS ARE REBELS AGAINST GOD, THE SOVEREIGN OF THE UNIVERSE. SIN ESSENTIALLY MANIFESTS ITSELF AS REBELLION AGAINST GOD.

CENTRAL TRUTH: Sinners are rebels against God, the Sovereign of the Universe.

[\[SoF:4\]](#) We believe that Jesus Christ is God incarnate, born of a virgin, and lived a sinless life. He died on the cross for us. His shed blood is the atonement for our sins. [\[SoF:5\]](#) We believe in Christ's bodily resurrection and ascension to the right hand of God, and that He will make a personal return to earth in power and glory. [\[SoF 6\]](#) We believe that all are sinners and lost, awaiting the judgment of God, but God is not willing that any should be lost. [\[SoF:7\]](#) We believe that sinners may have salvation by repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ.

GOLDEN TEXT: THOU, O LORD, ART A SHIELD FOR ME.

Psalm 3:3

In time of danger and attack from the wicked, David found his refuge in God because he knew that God was willing and able to help him. David found that "it is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man." (Psalm 118:8)

Although we do not often have reason to fear an enemy of the body, we must realize the presence of the enemy of our soul, the devil. The Lord Jesus demonstrated His power over this enemy very well by resisting every temptation and by rising from the dead. [\[SoF:5\]](#) Our shield against the spiritual enemy is faith in our Lord, who alone had victory over all evil. [\[SoF:7\]](#)
